

MEMORANDUM DIRECTING DISTRIBUTION OF PERSONAL PROPERTY

I own furnishings, jewelry, and other property of a very personal and sentimental nature which I would like distributed to family members and friends pursuant to this memorandum. This memorandum is to be considered in conjunction with and part of my Will, and should be considered a binding directive upon my Executor. This document does not prohibit heirs from making agreements or trades outside of this memorandum. Any items not referenced in this memorandum are to be distributed by my Executor to the heirs mentioned in my Will as equitable as possible. Any items not distributed may be sold at auction or otherwise dispersed as directed by my Executor.
