

300 West Wilson Bridge Road Suite 250 Worthington, 43085 | (614) 471-0085 |

Richard F. Meyer

News You Can Use From Browning & Meyer

Welcome to Browning & Meyer's October 2016 newsletter. It's packed with info on estate planning and probate law – specialty areas of our legal practice. Also included is a rundown on local National Breast Cancer and Down Syndrome Awareness Month events.

READ MORE

October is National Breast Cancer Awareness Month & National Down Syndrome Awareness Month

October is National Breast Cancer Awareness Month and also Down Syndrome Awareness Month, Generous Central Ohioans are coming together across the region to raise funds for these causes and mark the observations. Find details here.

READ MORE

5 Things to Know to Reduce Your Tax on Capital Gains

The one tax you may be able to avoid or minimize most through planning is the tax on capital gains. Here's what you need to know to do such planning.

READ MORE

Execute a Power of Attorney Before It's Too Late

A durable power of attorney is an extremely important estate planning tool, but many people delay completing this vital estate planning step until it's too late and they no longer are legally capable of doing it.

READ MORE

Life Insurance Can Still Play a Key Role As Part of an Estate Plan

Life insurance can be beneficial in replacing lost income for young families, but as people get older, it can also serve a purpose as part of an estate plan.

READ MORE

What Is a Life Estate?

A life estate often comes up in discussions of estate and Medicaid planning. It is a form of joint ownership that allows one person to remain in a house until his or her death, when it passes to the other owner.

READ MORE

Nursing Home Residents Win Back Right to Sue

In an unexpected move, the federal Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services is forbidding nursing homes from entering into binding arbitration agreements with a resident or their representative before a dispute arises.

READ MORE

300 West Wilson Bridge Road Suite 250 | Worthington, 43085
(614) 471-0085 |

Unsubscribe | This newsletter is from Browning & Meyer Co., LPA