

July 2022 Newsletter from R. F. Meyer & Associates Attorneys at Law

Richard F. Meyer

July 2022 newsletter touches on several recent Elder Law news items

Dear Clients and Referral Partners,

Welcome to our July 2022 client newsletter. High summer is here, and we've got another edition with news of recent developments in Elder Law.

READ MORE

Stop using unsafe portable bed rails immediately, National Safety Commission warns

An advisory issued in June warns people against using a series of adult portable bed rail models after at least three people were entangled in them and died of asphyxia.

READ MORE

Some Social Security beneficiaries can get retroactive payments – at a cost

If you need a lot of cash on hand upon retirement, Social Security offers a lump-sum payment option that's worth six months of retroactive benefits. However, it comes at a cost. It is important to understand the details before agreeing to the payment.

READ MORE

How to get into a nursing home as a Medicaid recipient

While Medicaid helps pay for nursing home care, being admitted to a nursing home as a Medicaid recipient is not always easy. There are several ways to navigate the process, depending on your situation.

READ MORE

